3 Reasons To Consider The Marsico Growth Fund

1 Captures Innovative, Faster-Growing Opportunities

Marsico Capital Management, LLC ("Marsico"), the adviser to the Marsico Funds, understands that innovation drives growth. The Marsico Growth Fund (the "Fund") invests in what the adviser believes are innovative, faster-growing, large-cap companies with attractive potentially long runways for revenue and earnings growth.

The early identification of growing trends that may be fueled by the demands of consumers across demographics is an important component of the portfolio management team's investment approach. This concentrated large-cap portfolio typically invests in 30-40 of what the adviser believes to be leading-edge companies leveraging state-of-the-art technologies that provide innovative products and solutions to growing consumer markets. Many of these companies are fueled by robust digital platforms that Marsico believes have the potential to expand earnings exponentially and capture significant market share.

- » A Digital World Demands Digital Advertising: The proliferation of social media, streaming services, and the shift from brick-and-mortar sales to e-commerce has changed the way brands engage consumers. The Fund seeks to invest in companies that successfully meet consumers where they are and at any time they choose to view content. The days of a 30-second prime-time TV ad to attract attention are seemingly gone. Social media, streaming services, and digital advertising have now become table stakes for those seeking to capture consumers’ attention across all demographics.

³ The Morningstar Rating™ for funds, or "star rating," is calculated for managed products (including mutual funds, variable annuity and variable life subaccounts, exchange-traded funds, closed-end funds, and separate accounts) with at least a three-year history. Exchange-traded funds and open-ended mutual funds are considered a single population for comparative purposes. It is calculated based on a Morningstar Risk-Adjusted Return measure that accounts for variation in a managed product's monthly excess performance, placing more emphasis on downward variations and rewarding consistent performance. The top 10% of products in each product category receive 5 stars, the next 22.5% receive 4 stars, the next 35% receive 3 stars, the next 22.5% receive 2 stars, and the bottom 10% receive 1 star. The Overall Morningstar Rating for a managed product is derived from a weighted average of the performance figures associated with its three-, five-, and 10-year (if applicable) Morningstar Rating metrics. The weights are: 100% three-year rating for 36-59 months of total returns, 60% five-year rating/40% three-year rating for 60-119 months of total returns, and 50% 10-year rating/30% five-year rating/20% three-year rating for 120 or more months of total returns. While the 10-year overall star rating formula seems to give the most weight to the 10-year period, the most recent three-year period actually has the greatest impact because it is included in all three rating periods. © 2024 Morningstar, Inc. Recent performance may have been negative.

⁵ Risk measures based on monthly return calculation against the S&P 500 Index. Capture Ratio measures the percentage of index (market) performance an investment "captured" during periods when the index achieved gains (up capture) or declined (down capture). For example, a capture ratio of 100 means investment performance went up or down exactly the same amount as the index.
